

Alone

I have not come here to be alone,
Alone in the world and lonely,
With no one to talk to.
Feeling hated and alone,
Alone without you, I am lonely.
I dream of you and people,
For I am deprived and incarcerated,
In this lonely life.
They are not alone,
They have each other,
But no one is with me alone,
And I have no one to be alone with.
I have not come here to be alone,
And would like company.
I can't be alone with you
Being alone without you,
I must look at myself in the mirror,
To make two, to make you.
I have not come to my senses,
To be alone, I shall go back
Into madness,
I shall become one of those characters,
Fighting to get out,
But finding only loneliness.
