

Conflict and Chaos.

Angles, points of view, perspectives,
Now you see it, or not and now you don't.
I'm a fire sign, you're a water sign.
Bird's eye ,, political, diabolical view,
Who's view, my view, your view, upside-down view.
Tunnel vision, magnified, aerial,
Telescopic, goggle-eyed nincompoop.

War, famine, arguments, ranting, raving.
Escalation and chaos and madness.
Guns blazing, blaring and fires roaring,
Winners, losers, sadness, sharing glory.
Fallout and fall in, the muck and mire,
Tempers flaring, screaming, shouting, screeching.
Devil prancing with mischievous grin.

Pit them against each other, make them fight
Bad luck when others never coincide.
Pullout when they slight and watch them ignite,
Take sides, mediate, rich pickings there,
Favours for the winners, ravers the rest.
Anger, madness and chaos aplenty.

Meeting, greeting, coincide, silence, peace,
All is quiet and calm until the next time.
