

Cooking our favourite meal.

We get the saucepans together,

Place them on the hob,

Fire underneath, making them hot.

I add water from the kettle,

Throw in some potatoes.

Then you'll pick up the frying pan,

Heat the oil.

Throw the vegetarian sausages in.

They sizzle and the aroma wafts,

All over the kitchen,

Making us ready to eat.

I chop the carrots, bang bang,

Throw them in another pot.

Add hot water, cook until tender.

You then prepare the gravy, more hot water,

Pouring onto the granules, steam everywhere.

Soon everything is ready,

We put it out on plates.

And sit at the dining table,

(Enjoying what we just earned.)
