

Dark Wild of the Seas

Choppy and chaotic, wild and roaring,
Waves smashing others, tide rising.
Boats, bodies, debris tossed around carelessly
Against the current, winds lashing wild.
Sharks beneath ,submarines spying,
Storm brewing, tugging, tornado, vortex.
In the mist faraway sounds of howling,
Eerie in the silent moonlight, shining bright.
Lightning strikes thunder roars
Birds swoop upon the fish which fly.
Waves smashing against the rocks,
Dark and foreboding, stars in the night sky.

Moon glows in the calm seas and skies clear
Gentle lapping in the breeze, dawn sunrise., birdsong.
Orange hues of sun's rays filtering down, peace.
