

Letter

You need to be cared for, a lot.
I've not had to care about anyone before.
I tried my best, for you, a year,
Sacrificed my own life.
But is that the life I want,
Although I do love you,
I had not decided yet.

It would be a sacrifice, or none for you,
A hard decision, to live our dreams,
Choosing between my way or yours.
You made that decision for me,
Then you changed your mind.
You don't know you care enough,
To set me free.
A mournful time, when you told me.
The end of our world.

What you did do is,
Tell me to live life my way,
But I would still help you,
If you'll let me.
No sacrifice it would be,
To live another life,
Now I am free
