

No Worries

You think there is nothing to worry about,
It is my imagination you say,
They say time will tell, be patient,
And you learn to be happy,
In the face of adversity.

Then you're alone. The world has ended.
Brave face. Stiff upper lip.
Do not worry, be happy,
It'll sort itself out.
Control it freak, or avoid it altogether.

Until you are surprised one day;
Life is full of wonderful surprises,
The world has gotten up upon its feet,
And is dancing merrily,
To music only you can hear.

- MAGICAL ?
(MERRILY ?)
