

Nothing and nowhere

What are you doing here?
This is not anywhere,
Go away, stay there.
In the empty space full of promises,
In the nowhere land, in never-land,
Everywhere there is nowhere,
Yesterday is tomorrow today,
This week running into last week,
Wait a second. I did already.

A moment of madness fills the sky,
A minute of your time please,
Hurry, not a moment to lose.
Everywhere is nowhere then,
A place that is not a place;
Everywhere that is not here.
