

The Case of Gavin McIntyre

This is the case of Gavin McIntyre,
Who is wonderful and caring and kind.
He was lonely and used to drink and take drugs,
Which blew his mind.

He got into scrapes and fights,,
With friends and strangers alike,
He got into a fight with a nurse,
As he often does,
For which the doctor locked him away,
But I love him anyway.
Glad to say he is now discharged.
But from that hospital barred.
