

The Power of Your Hands

Soft as they touch me gently, stroking me,
Strong as they hold me tightly, we are dancing.,
I'm feeling safe in their masculine power.
Is that lines I see, you are growing old with me.
Square nails, large fingers, skilled hands,
In their craft, of furniture making.
Using tools to carve out a piece of art,
To be looked at, held and stroked,
Beautiful and useful like your hands,
Created from their power.
