

To My Sister

You are so kind and good and pure, an angel.

When we were children ,sharing with me,

You biscuits and ice-creams.

And sending me money, when I was at university,

After I left, you cooked for me while I stayed at home writing,

And recently sent me a birthday present of money,

When I know you don't have much.

You still live at home, safe and secure,

With nothing to bother you, mummy's darling.

While i went out into the world and tried to find myself.

And had problems on the way, and I am thankful,

That you are on my side.
