

Waiting for You

I am looking forward to seeing you,
So we can begin our Christmas,
Our first together,
For which we have already prepared.

Decorated the tree,
Bought the turkey, veggie for me.
Did you remember the cloves for the bread sauce,
I'll find out soon when you arrive.
With a smile on your face,
Like the sun shining upon me.

Here comes my sweetheart now,
Good to see you, I give you a kiss.
And you produce from a bag
You remembered, the jar of aromatic cloves.
